Pg. (1)

Exhibit N

CC-00-2569-PR

John Willie Minnifield
PLAINTIFF
VS.
Montgomery Co. Cir. Ct. Newly
State of Ala. Discovered Evidence
Defendant
Through Motion For Writ of Habeas Corpus Prose

C.C. No. 99-327...

COME NOW IN The Above style AN/OR Cause
Plaintiff John Willie Minnifield IN AND ON this
OWN behalf. Petitioner, This Honorable Cir. Court
To Grant The Body of Plaintiff John W. Minnifield
IN open Court, To Present These Allegation
BEFORE THE Hon. Sally Greenhaw Presiding
before in The Montgomery Alabama Cir. Court IN AN/OR EVEDENTary hearing. Plaintiff is being held UNlawfully by The D.O.C. IN
AND Against his Will. Motion will Reveal
Proof beyond A Reasonable doubt. AN
Motion This Court To Release Plaintiff
From Custody Forever. Petitioner Allege
Newly Discovery of evidence were NOT
KNOWING AT Trial because State Witheld This INFORMATION From Plaintiff in Violation
OF THE 14th Amendment. This evidence could NOT have been KNOWING To Plaintiff before, or during Trial, because The State Witheld This INFORMATION From Plaintiff INTENTIONally.

Pg (2)

E-1 (1) State: Claim Plaintiff use Gobbledygook, To Create Confusion. yes State Created An Array of Confusion by Withholding evidence From Plaintiff AN/or using illegal evidence AN/or Witnesses. Causing Confusion. John Willie Minnifield was Arraigned on The Wheels of A Faulty Indictment That do Not Have The Minium Standard of law. State Knew This And Then Council John Hartley Jr, did Conspire With State, To deprive plaintiff of his liberty And Justice To have A Fair Trial; by Withholding Evidence That Could have Release plaintiff From Custody.

E-2 (2) illegal evidence That Were discoverable, Were Not Revealed in Motion of Discovery. City Cases That Were on Appeal Were use Jody Lewis: Statement Misleading Appeals Court. Dana Cook: Statement. how She Were Cut is Misleading To Appels Court Witness Brought Before Court While plaintiff Were in holding Cell. Violent Acts, Dated For 2 years prior To Marrage is Absurb State did Not Seek The Truth, Murderous Rage.

INDICTMENT ELEMENTS

The Alabama Crim Code defines only Four Culbable Mental States. Knowingly Recklessly, intentionally and/or Criminal Negligence AlA Code. 1975. 13-A-2 The Crim Code do not define

B-1 Unlawfully. Defendant usally Waive irregularites in indictment by offering or pleading in Trial. An Admission that indictment is valid. only Exception is when indictment fails to include essential elements of the offense. of which leave a defendant unaware of Nature and/or Cause of Charge. Against him. Rule 16.2-4d Rules of Crim Procedure Temporary.

Harper Vs State

B-2 Failure to Allege Scienter in indictment Charging with Unlawfully. of charge did not Render indictment (Void). Failure to Allege That The Wording in The indictment, Knowingly. Which is The Element and/or Not Unlawfully.

Walker Vs State

B-3 The Statement in Walker That Knowingly is The Main Elements of The offense. of any Charged and/or indictment. Petitioner Contention, That he can Raise The issue of Failure of The indictment, to Allege Knowingly. At any time because The indictment would have Failed to State A Charge, upon Which A

Pg(4)

Conviction could be Raised, in Facts. Stewart Vs. State. 580-50-2d 27 A/A (1991) The Court of Criminal Appeals. Citing The Walker

B-3-B Principle. held That The indictment in That Case was (Void). because it did NOT Allege knowingly, As An Element of the offense. And That The issue could be Raised by The Plaintiff: John W. Minnifield After Trial.

Commentary

To 13-A-2-2 definition of Culpable Mental status. Saying The following Regarding The various Terms used in Cases decided, before The Adoption of the Criminal Code.

B-4 Relating To and defining The Culpable Mental Status Required. An indictment MUST of Course inform Petitioner: of Charge, he MUST defend Against, if it Fail To do So Then its defected, (Pursant) To Rule 39-6-4 A.R.A.P

Ommission

B-5 Omision Cannot be Corrected by Trial Judge, Without Violation of the Crump Case. A Court is Without Authority, To Add or Take-Away, From Any of the Material Averment in the indictment. Which Speaks For itself, An is Conclusive 417 So 2d At 614.

C-1 Petitioner Now Move To the Case of Cont'd Henry Mack Harper Citing Writ of Certiorri

Pg(5)

Supreme Court Granted Harper. Petitioner For Writ of Certiorri in This Case, Primary To Review This question. Was The INDICTMENT Which Tracked The language of the STATUTE IN Alleging That (Harper) Unlawfully Commited The Crime As Charged, Code of Alabama (1975). 13-A-12-211. Fatally defected because it did Not Allege That The OFFENSE Were Knowingly Commited.

(A-1)

Jody Lewis STATEMENT

When State seek To USE a Persons Former TESTIMONY, Against A Criminal defendant. State MUST Either Produce AS A WITNESS, The Person Whom Wishes To USE, or else demonstrate That Person is Unavaible" For Trial. Constitional AMEND. 6 Rules of Evidence. Rule. 6-804-B-1

A-2

Dana Cook STATEMENT

Misleading Allegation To Appeals Court by State. Mrs Minnifield older daughter Dana Cook SUFFERED CUTS on/A. Requiring STITCHES From J.W. Minnifield HATCHET. See; TRANSCRIPT (Page 23 T 216-217 line 17 thru 10 Relating how she gotten cut. State has several Allegations, Misleading To Appeals in it brief. See Transcript of Records Which Shows Inconsistence between Transcript and/or State Brief To Appeals Court.

A-3

Pg. (6)

Hostile Witness

(1) Use Witness That Were Not in discovery by State of Alabama. Rosebud AN son Tim Brown Security Guard Lester Claxton. All hostile Witness That lied while Under oath. State KNEW These Peoples lied. Pg (E 2.)

City Cases on Appeal

(2) Use of illegally evidence in Contaminated Eviden That Were on Appeal From City Court. Whereas: There Were Never A Final Resolution In Those Cases AND should Never been Used. No Evidence on Stalking Are Following As Victim Allege, At Church (2) Times At Karate Practice (3) Times At her Job (2) Times At her Secon Job (1) Time. See Pg(2) (E-1.)

Jody Lewis

(3) See! D.A. Brief To Appeals Court Jody lewis Not in Court. Not even Mention in Court Plaintiff: Proved Victim lied. Court Release Me. yet State Misleading Appeals Court That Plaintiff: Forced Way into his home AND Threating Victim Proved (False) Allegations. That Victim Put This Kid up To lie To have Plaintiff locked up.

DNA Cook Testimony

(3) How She gotten cuts See Page 217 Transcript State Allege She Were cut by Plaintiff Hatchet in brief To Appeals Court Misleading Ct. Again Not being Consistency With Transcript.

Pg(7)

Notes Left on Car

(4X State) Knew Victim were out to get Plaintiff! Notes Left on Car, State did not check for Validy of handwriting by expert; Analisy. To Prove, This was Plaintiff: No witness, Evidence shold have been inadmissable. Court had evedentary Hearing before D.A. Bailey And/or former Attorney John Hart.

illegally Bail

Released from custody Twice No bails Picked up Twice on false Allegations, Misconduct of Court. Reset Bail at $100.000.00. Which is unlawfully. whereas Bail were only $40.000,00. No Merits No witness, To Allegatio That Plaintiff offered Anyone $200.00, To get Apt. No: of Victim. Court issued Warrant of Arrests for Failure To Appear. (Absurb) False Warrant. State failed To Produce witness, That Plaintiff attemp To Pay Anyone for Victim Apt. No: As Allege by Victim. Allegation Nolle Prosse is Faulty Plaintiff: Never were served With indictment. There is No elements, No: date, And/or Time Frame To-wit.

Indictment

Pg. 8

False Report

Sentence Should Never enhanced Sentence due To Det. William did Willfully Misslead The Court by giving false information That Plaintiff had Prior Felonies. From St. Clair Co. Robbery Autogate, Dallas Co, And several Burglaries in different Counties. This is False Information. Det. Cassandra William Willfully Stated This were N.C.I.C. Information which is Untrue.

P.S.I. Report

Stated same Information To D.O.C. which Prevent Plaintiff From Custody Work Release And/or Study Release. Plaintiff still Allege The Cycle of lies still going on Thru- The False imprisonment, everything And everybody is Taking Sides with Vondiel Minnifield Look. An State did not investigate her Past or behavior Pattern being a drug Addict Thief, Prostitute An Habitual liar. See: Pete Rose Statement To D.A. I told her A Part Then We Talked An Talked An Talked And became Friends do That Tell The Court As I Allege They were lovers An he lied on Stand. This Court cannot be so blind That All of The Allegation And Re-hearshed Statement by Witness To Punish Plaintiff Whom Really is The Victim in This Case See: Ronnie Wates Statement. Pg.

Summary Judgement

Plaintiff John W. Winnfield hope and pray that Court Honor this Motion for Motion and/or Grant New Trial on Grounds stated below.

(1) Misleading Appeal's Court As stated by Raising Issues That is Inconsistence With Transcript.

(2) Using Witnesses That were Not in evidence for Discovery.

(3) Using Case's That was on Appeal To Lit. Lt. That No Final Resolution (Contemated).

(4) See: Judy Lewis in D.A. Chief To Appeals etc

(5) Challenge of Indictment No Time Frame, date.

(6) Statement of Motion That Witness lied.

(7) Being locked up on Fraudelon Arrest Warrant

(8) held on Bond Are bail Unconstitional.

(9) Revoked on bail Twice, when There were No bail See Transcript Pg. 6 Pg. 11

(10) See Grand Jury Indictment Fore Person David Brian Penn True Bill Fore Person Dorinda P. Hurt See Transchipt

Pg. 10

Copy of state brief to Appl Ct.

Done this ___ day September 2000

Plaintiff John W. Winfield

Respectfully Submitted

Certificate of Service

I Certify that I have to be placed in U.S. Mail To be served on Melisa Matthews Circuit Court Clerk. 250 Lawrence St Montgomery Co. Courthouse Montgomery Al. 36104

Notary

Sworn To And Subscribed Before me This 19th Day of September 2000. At Ventress Corr. Facility. P.O. Box 746 Clayton Al. 36016 Witness My hand and official seal of office.

Notary Public Shirley Ann Smith

My Commission Expires 3/30/02

NO. CR-99-0915

IN THE COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS OF ALABAMA

JOHN WILLIE MINNIFIELD, ALIAS,

APPELLANT,

V.

STATE OF ALABAMA,

APPELLEE.

ON APPEAL FROM THE CIRCUIT COURT OF
MONTGOMERY COUNTY, ALABAMA
(NO. CC 99-327)

BRIEF AND ARGUMENT

OF

BILL PRYOR
ATTORNEY GENERAL

AND

JOSEPH G. L. MARSTON, III
ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL

ATTORNEYS FOR APPELLEE

ADDRESS OF COUNSEL:

Office of the Attorney General
Alabama State House
11 South Union Street
Montgomery, Alabama 36130
(334) 242-7300

TABLE OF CONTENTS

TABLE OF CASES

TABLE OF STATUTES

Page(s)

CODE OF ALABAMA, 1975

NO. CR-99-0915

IN THE COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS OF ALABAMA

JOHN WILLIE MINNIFIELD, ALIAS,

APPELLANT,

V.

STATE OF ALABAMA,

APPELLEE.

ON APPEAL FROM THE CIRCUIT COURT OF
MONTGOMERY COUNTY, ALABAMA
(NO. CC 99-327)

BRIEF AND ARGUMENT OF APPELLEE, THE STATE OF ALABAMA

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The Grand Jury of Montgomery County, at its February, 1999, term, indicted the appellant, John Willie Minnifield, also known by an array of aliases, including J.W. Minnifield, for stalking[1] Ms. Vonciel Minnifield. (C. pp. 10-11)

---

[1] Code Of Alabama, (1975), Section 13A-6-90(a), appendix.

J.W. Minnifield was arraigned on the indictment or waived arraignment[2] and pleaded not guilty.

Before trial, J.W. Minnifield attempted to proceed with "hybrid" representation, i.e. being represented by counsel and proceeding pro se, as co-counsel. Although represented by counsel, most of the pre-trial defense motions were filed by J.W. Minnifield, pro se. (C. pp. 18-19, 25-28, and 31-34) As a career criminal with some eleven prior felony convictions, (C. p. 16-17 and 38-108), J.W. Minnifield knew how to use gobbledygook to create confusion.

One of J.W. Minnifield's pro se motions was a motion to reduce bond, filed March 16, 1999. (C. pp. 18-19) After several hearings, the motion was granted on July 12, 1999, (C. pp. 1-4), conditioned, inter alia, on J.W. Minnifield's, "... having no contact with the victim, her family, or employer... ." (C. p. 4)

The next day, July 13, 1999, the district attorney filed a motion to revoke bond, advising the Court that, after being released on reduced bond the day before, J.W. Minnifield had gone to the home of a relative of the victim. Although the relative told

[2] See Garland V. Washington, 232 U.S. 642, 58 L.Ed 772, 34 S. Ct. 456, (1914); Watts V. State, 460 So. 2d 204, (Ala, 1984), and Singleton V. Tuscaloosa, 557 So. 2d 565, 566-567, (Ala.Crim.App, 1990).

J.W. Minnifield that he did not wish to speak to him, J.W. Minnifield forced his way into the house and followed the man into his bedroom, castigating him and making implied threats against the victim. (C. pp. 29-30)

On October 21, 1999, the district attorney's motion came on for hearing, and a capias was issued. (C. p. 5)

On November 6, 1999, the capias was executed. On November 12, 1999, the original bond was re-instated. (C. pp. 5)

On January 10, 2000, the cause came on for trial before the Honorable Sally M. Greenhaw, a Circuit Judge and a jury. J.W. Minnifield was attended by his attorney, Mr. John Wiley Hartley, Esq. The State was represented by its district attorney, Ms. Eleanor I. Brooks, Esq. and her deputy, Mr. Daryl Bailey, Esq. (R-1-2)

Before trial, the question of "hybrid" representation was taken up. Judge Greenhaw made it clear that, although she had appointed Mr. Hartley to represent J.W. Minnifield, she recognized J.W. Minnifield's right to represent himself[3]. However, she declined to allow J.W. Minnifield "hybrid" representation[4]. After an extensive colloquy, J.W. Minnifield insisted on his right to represent himself. Judge Greenhaw ordered Mr. Hartley to remain in the courtroom, in case J.W. Minnifield changed his mind. (R-42-44, 47-57 and 59)

[3] Faretta V. California, 422 U.S. 806, 45 L.Ed.2d. 562, 95 S.Ct.2525, (1975).

On January 12, 2000, the jury, having heard the evidence, argument of counsel and charge of the Court, found J.W. Minnifield guilty of stalking, as charged in the indictment, and he was adjudged guilty in accordance with the verdict. (C. pp. 6 and 37, and R- 354-355)

On February 7, 2000, the cause came on for sentencing. Mr. Hartley was present, although his status was less than clear. J.W. Minnifield, having suffered eleven prior felony convictions, was sentenced to twenty years imprisonment[5]. (C. p. 7 and R-357-369)

---

[4] A criminal defendant has no right to "hybrid" representation. McKaskle V. Wiggins, 465 U.S. 168, 183, 79 L.Ed.2d. 122, 136, 104 S.Ct. 944, (1984); Hunt V. State, 659 So.2d. 933, 938, (Ala.Crim.App, 1994]; aff'd sub nom Ex parte Hunt 659 So.2d. 960, [Ala, 1995]; cert. den. __ U.S. __, 133 L.Ed.2d. 146, 116 S.Ct. 215; Lucus V. State, 645 So. 2d. 333, (Ala.Crim.App, 1994); cert. den.

[5] Code Of Alabama, (1975), Sections 13A-5-9(c)(1) and 13A-6-90(b), appendix.

On February 11, 2000, J.W. Minnifield, pro se, filed a motion for a new trial; the same was denied on March 16, 2000. (C. pp. 8-9 and 111-115)

This appeal follows. (R-369)

STATEMENT OF ISSUES PRESENTED

1. Does a criminal defendant have the right to charges to the jury on lesser included offenses on the basis of an absurd theory, which is contrary to law?

2. Where the State proves that the defendant repeatedly followed the victim, threatened her life, tampered with her car, ran her off the road, broke into her home with a weapon, assaulted her, and tried to kill her, is the evidence sufficient to prove stalking, where the defendant and the victim were contemplating a divorce and the defendant's acts may have been intended as "communication"?

See (2) City case was on Appeal but was used As evidence Those was illegal evidence presented

STATEMENT OF THE FACTS

The appellee's statement of the facts is supplemental to and in correction of Appellant J.W. Minnifield's statement.

The State's evidence proved a course of stalking of Ms. Vonciel Minnifield by J.W. Minnifield during 1998, which included at least eleven separate instances of personal confrontation, in addition to threatening letters and notes. On at least three occasions he threatened to kill her and demonstrated his intent with violent acts. (R-120-121) Except for an act in Auburn, all of these incidents took place in Montgomery County, Alabama. (R-119-120)

Ms. Vonciel Minnifield met J.W. Minnifield in 1992, and they dated for two years before they married on October 8, 1994. About two years after they married, J.W. Minnifield undertook to shove Ms. Minnifield during an argument. She told him that she did not want him "putting hands on" her. (R-87-89 and 212-213)

In July of 1998, J.W. Minnifield's being in a state of intoxication led Ms. Minnifield to take her children and leave her husband. What happened was this: By 1998, Ms. Minnifield had learned that when J.W. Minnifield was drunk, an argument always ensued. Not wanting to expose her children to drunken quarrels, Ms. Minnifield had developed the practice of taking her children and leaving the home, knowing that when they returned a few hours later, J.W. Minnifield would be passed out. However, on this occasion in July of 1998, Ms. Minnifield returned in heavy rain to find the locks on her home changed. She took her children to a motel, and never returned to the home she had shared with J.W. Minnifield. (R-89-90)

By October of 1998, Ms. Minnifield was living at an apartment with her children. J.W. Minnifield came to the apartment, but Ms. Minnifield refused to let him in or speak to him. Whereupon, J.W. Minnifield undertook to vandalize the lady's car. Ms. Minnifield called the police. As she was making her report, J.W. Minnifield returned and the police instructed him to leave his estranged wife alone. (R-90-92)

At 9:30 p.m. on October 29, 1998, J.W. Minnifield came to Ms. Minnifield's apartment demanding that she give him a vacuum cleaner he claimed was his. She told him that she would deliver it to his place of employment the next day, but she would not open her door to him. He left but returned around 11:00 p.m. Again Ms.

Minnifield refused to open her door, and he left. However, at 12:30 a.m, J.W. Minnifield returned in a rage, and apparently drunk. J.W. Minnifield announced that, if Ms. Minnifield did not admit him, he was going to smash through a window. Fearing flying glass, Ms. Minnifield awakened her younger daughter, Ashley Eliza Cook, who was sleeping in the room with the only window, and told her to get up. J.W. Minnifield kicked in the front door and entered the apartment in a murderous rage. Ms. Minnifield urged her daughters to flee the apartment, but they insisted on trying to protect their mother. J.W. Minnifield produced a hatchet. Repeatedly, he stated his intent to kill Ms. Minnifield. During the violent struggle, Ms. Minnifield was thrown through a window, sustaining cuts and bruises. Ms. Minnifield's older daughter, Dana Cook, suffered a cut requiring stitches from J.W. Minnifield's hatchet. Finally, Ms. Minnifield and both of her daughters managed to flee their home. The girls fled to the apartment of Ms. Rosebud Brown, while J.W. Minnifield pursued his estranged wife through the apartment complex. Ms. Brown called the police. When Montgomery Police Officer G.L. Sisson and his partner arrived, they arrested J.W. Minnifield. (R-96-104, 138-143, 147-154, 198-203, and 208-212)

Misleading App. Ct. See Transcript

After he was released from jail the next day, J.W. Minnifield told Ms. Minnifield's sister, Clemmitha Petace, what he had done the previous night, admitting chasing his estranged wife with an "ax" and hitting Ms. Petace's niece. (R-70-73)

On November 14, 1998, Ms. Minnifield took Mr. Timothy Brown to Millbrook to pick up his son. J.W. Minnifield observed Ms. Minnifield driving on the Northern Bypass in Montgomery on her way to Millbrook. He undertook to follow her onto I-65, trying to run her off the road and shouting death threats at her, when he drew alongside of her. Ms. Minnifield managed to escape only by breaking hard and spinning her car into the median. She went straight to the police and executed a warrant charging her estranged husband with reckless endangerment. (R-92-96, 157, and 190-194)

On three or four occasions, J.W. Minnifield was waiting outside when Ms. Minnifield and her daughters left their martial arts class. He would follow them when they drove away. (R-104-106)

One of Ms. Minnifield's jobs was as a caterer at the RSA Plaza. Every year her employer catered a tailgate party at the last Auburn home game. J.W. Minnifield had never gone with his wife to one of these events, but in 1998, he followed her there. Terrified, Ms. Minnifield asked Lester Glaxton, a security guard employed by RSA Plaza, to protect her. When Ms. Minnifield noticed J.W. Minnifield watching her from only twenty yards away, she pointed him out to Mr. Glaxton. J.W. Minnifield was asked to leave, and after about thirty minutes he did so. (R-106-108, 181-186)

Twice, J.W. Minnifield stalked his estranged wife at her church, although he did not otherwise indicate any interest in religion. (R-109-110) He stalked her at her job at RSA Plaza, (R-110-112 and 224-228), and at her second job at Shoney's. (R-118-119)

He also sent her threatening letters through mail and left notes on her car. (R-112-118)

J.W. Minnifield also communicated death threats against Ms. Minnifield to her babysitter, Ms. Lawana Benson. (R-158-172) misleading APP. CT. There were NO Threats Read STATEMENT NOT OWNER

He also threatened acquaintances of Ms. Minnifield, like auto parts store owner, Mr. Pete Rose, and spread vicious slander about her. (R-75-81)

misleading APP CT. see RONNIE WATERS TESTIMONY

J.W. Minnifield, pro se, called a number of witnesses, but it is not at all clear what he intended to prove by them. In fact, two of them, Mr. Ronnie Waters, (R-252), and Ms. Gloris Perdo, (R-255-258), gave evidence supporting the charges.

Minnifield testified in his own behalf and tried to justify his conduct. (R-261-288)

An agreed stipulation was made for Mr. Don Thomason, a defense witness, who was indisposed. (R-295-296)

In rebuttal, the State presented the testimony of former Montgomery Police Detective Cassandra Williams. Pursuant to the procedure mandated by Miranda V. Arizona, (384 U.S. 436, 16 L. Ed.2d. 694, 86 S.Ct. 1602 [1966]), Detective Williams obtained a voluntary incriminating statement from J.W. Minnifield relating to his violent attack on Ms. Minnifield and her daughters on October 29-30, 1998. In the statement, J.W. Minnifield also admitted tampering with his estranged wife's car. (R-296-306) misleading APP CT.

ARGUMENT

I.

IN RE: LESSER INCLUDED OFFENSES

It was undisputed in this case that J.W. Minnifield repeatedly followed Ms. Minnifield, threatened her life, tampered with her car, ran her off the road, broke into her home with a weapon, assaulted her, and tried to kill her. Yet, J.W. Minnifield claims that the Trial Judge erred in not charging the jury on harassment under Section 13A-11-8(a)(1), Code Of Alabama, (1975), appendix. Although, some of J.W. Minnifield's acts might, if considered alone, constitute harassment, most of them went way beyond harassment, and, because all of these acts together were part of a course of repeated conduct intended to terrorize Ms. Minnifield, they together constituted stalking to the exclusion of any other offense. Section 13A-6-90(a), Code Of Alabama, (1975), appendix. J.W. Minnifield's "defense" was no defense at all. His claim that he should be excused, because he and Ms. Minnifield were contemplating a divorce and he was trying to communicate with her, is patent nonsense, although typical of the notions self-righteously pontificated by career criminals when they proceed pro se.

Where, as here, there is no basis for a verdict of guilty of a certain lesser included offense, an accused person has no right to charges on such offense. Section 13A-1-9(b), Code of Alabama, 1975, appendix; Bang V. State, 620 So.2d. 106, 110, (Ala.Crim.App, 1993); cert. den; Davis. V. State, 554 So.2d. 1094, 1103, (Ala.Crim.App, 1986); aff'd sub nom Ex parte Davis, 554 So.2d. 1111, (Ala, 1986); cert. den. 498 U.S. 1127, 112 L.Ed.2d. 1196, 111 S.Ct. 1091; Wright V. State, 494 So.2d. 726, 729ff, (Ala.Crim.App, 1985); aff'd. sub nom Ex parte Wright, 494 So.2d. 745, 747ff, (cases collected) (Ala, 1986); cert. den. 479 U.S. 1101, 94 L.Ed.2d. 183, 107 S.Ct. 1331; Ex parte Tomlin, 443 So.2d. 59, 61ff, (Ala, 1983); cert. den. 466 U.S. 954, 80 L.Ed.2d. 545, 104 S.Ct. 2160, and Cook V. State, 431 So.2d. 1322, (Ala, 1983).

The Trial Court correctly refused to charge on harassment.

II.

IN RE: THE SUFFICIENCY OF THE EVIDENCE

J.W. Minnifield's "defense" was that he should be excused for terrorizing Ms. Minnifield by malicious and cruel acts of violence, because he and Ms. Minnifield were contemplating a divorce and he was trying to communicate with her. Giving such a "defense" the force of law would strip women, who found themselves in failing marriages, of any protection of the law from whatever cruelty their estranged husbands chose to visit on them. Such a notion would violate every principle of the rule of law, due process, and equal protection. Yet, this is the basis of J.W. Minnifield's claim that the evidence was insufficient. This claim should be rejected out of hand.

misleading APP CT

where my Due Process

Stalking charges most commonly arise from failing or failed marriages or similar relationships. See Hayes V. State, 717 So.2d. 30, 32, (Ala.Crim.App, 1997); cert. den; Ivey V. State, 698 So.2d. 179, 181, (Ala.Crim.App, 1996), aff'd. sub nom Ex parte Ivey, 698 So.2d. 187, (Ala, 1997); Culbreath V. State, 667 So.2d. 156, 157, (Ala.Crim.App, 1995); cert. den.

The Trial Judge correctly submitted the case to the jury.